

CptS 322: Club Hub - User Login Activity Diagram

This diagram depicts the activities required for the user login use case. It goes through having a user register an account that they are then signed into, and also logging into and authenticating an account that already exists. It features various activities, guards, merges, forks, and swim lanes to demonstrate this.